

The PSALMES of DAVID.

Beatus Vir. Psal. i.

Lessed is the Man that hath not walked in the counsel of the vngod-lie, nor stand in the ware of sinners : and hath not sat in the sease of vscorn-full.

Morning
prayer.

2 But his delight is in the lawe of the Lord :
and in his lawe will he exercise hyselue dale and ight.

3 In hee shall bee like a tree planted by the aters side : that will bring forth his fruit in due ason.

4 His leafe also shall not wither : and looke whatsoever he doth it shall prosper.

5 As for the vngodly, it is not so with them :
for they are like the chasse which the wind scatte-
th awaie from the face of the earth.

6 Therefore the vngodlie shall not bee able to stand in the iudgement: neither the sinner's in the congregation of the righteous.

7 But the Lord knoweth the waile of the righteous; and the waile of the ungodly shall perish.

Quare tremuerunt. Psal. ii.

VVhy do the heathen so furiously rage together: & why do the people imagine a vain thing?

2 The Kinges of the earth stand vp, and the Rulers take counsell together: against the Lord and against his anointed.

3 Let vs breake their bonds asunder: and cast awaite their cords from vs.

4 He that dwelleth in heauen shall laugh them to scorne: the Lord shall haue them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak to them in his wrath: and bere them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet haue I set my King: vpon my holie hill of Sion.

7 I wil preach the law therof the Lord hath said vnto me: Thou art my sonne, this day haue I begotten thee.

8 Desire of me, & I wil give thee the heathen for thine inheritance: and the vtermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9 Thou shalt bruise them with a rod of iron: and breake them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

10 Be wise now therefore, O yee Kings: be learned ye that are Judges of the earth.

11 Serue the Lord in feare: and reioice vnto him with reverence.

12 Kisse the son least hee be angrie, and so perishe from the right way: if his wrath be kindled, yea but a little, blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

Domine quid multiplicati. Psal. iii.

Lord how are they increased that trouble me:
many are they that rise against me.

2 Manie one there be that late of my soule:
there is no help for him in his God.

3 But thou, O Lorde, art my desender: thou art my worship, and the lifter vp of my head.

4 I did call vpon the Lord with my voice: he heard me out of his holie hill.

5 I laid me downe and slept, and rose vp againe: for the Lord sustamed me.

6 I will not be afraide for tenne thousands of people: that haue sette themselves against me round about.

7 Up Lord and help me, O my God: for thou findest all mine enenies vpon the cheke bone,
thou hast broken the teeth of the vngodly.

8 Saluation belongeth to the Lord: and thy blessing is vpon the people.

Cum inuocarem. Psal. iii.

Hear me when I call, O God of my righte-ousnesse: for thou hast set me at libertie when I was in trouble, haue mercie vpon me, & hear ken unto my prayer.

2 O ye sonnes of men, how long will ye blas-phemme mine honour: and haue such pleasure in vanitie and seeke after leauing?

3 I know this also that the Lord hath chosen to himselfe the man that is godlie: when I call vp on the Lord he will heare me.

4 Stand in awe and sin not: committine with your own heart, and in your chamber and be stil.

5 Offer the sacrifice of righteousness: and put your trust in the Lord.

Moneth. The i. day.

6 There be manie that sate: Who will shew vs anie good?

7 Lord lift thou vp: the light of thy counse
lance vpon vs.

8 Thou hast put gladnesse in my heart: since the time that their corn and wine and oile increas ed.

9 I will late me downe in peace, and take my rest: for it is thou Lord only that makest me dwell in safetie.

Verba mea auribus. Psal. v.

P Under my words, O Lord: consider my me ditation.

2 O hearken shou unto the voice of my ca king, my King and my God: for unto thee will I make my prater.

3 My voice shalt thou heare betimes, O Lord
early in the morning will I direct my prater un to thee, and looke vp.

4 For thou art the God that hast no pleasure in wickednesse: neither shal any evill dwel with thee.

5 Such as be foolish shal not stand in thy sight
for thou hatest all them that worke vanitie.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speake leaung
the Lord will abhorre both the bloudthirstie and deceitfull man.

7 But as for me, I will come into thine house even vpon the multitude of thy mercies: and in thy feare wil I worship toward thy holy temple.

8 Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness, be cause of mine enemies: make thy waye plaine

satter with their tongue.

11 Destroye thou them, O God, let them perish through their owne imaginations: cast them out in the multitude of their vngodlines, for they have rebelled against thee.

12 And let all them that put their trust in thee reioice: they shall ever bee giuing thankes, because thou defendest them, they that loue thy name shall be ioifull in thee.

13 For thou Lord wilt giue thy blessing vnto
the righteous: and with thy favourable kindnes wilt thou defend him, as with a shied.

2 Haue mercie vpon me, O Lord, for I am weake: O Lord heale me, for my bones are bared.

3 My soule is also sore troubled; but Lord how long wilt thou punish me?

4 Turne thee, O Lord, and deliuer my soule:
sau me for thy mercies sake.

5 For in death no man remembreteth thee: and no will giue thee thanks in the pit?

6 I am weary of my groaning, euerie night also I my bed: and water my couch with my teares.

7 My beautie is gone for verie trouble: and borne away because of all mine enemies.

8 Away from me, all ye that work vanity: for Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.

Moneth. The i. day.

9 The Lord hath heard my petition: the Lord will receive my prayer.

10 All mine enemies shall be confounded and sore vexed: they shall be turned backe and put to shame suddenly.

Domine Deus, Psal. viii.

O Lord my God, in thee haue I put my trust: save mee from all them that persecute mee, and deliuer me.

2 Least he deuoure my soule like a Lion, and seare it in pieces: while there is none to help.

3 O Lord my God, if I haue done anie such shynge: or if there be any wickednes in my hands.

4 If I haue rewarded evill vnto him that dealt friendly with me: yea, I haue deliuered him that without anie cause was mine enemye.

5 Then let mine enemye persecute my soule and take mee: yea, let him tread my life downe vpon the earth, and laie mine honor in the dust.

6 Stand vp, O Lord in thy wrath, and liffe vp thy selfe, because of the indignation of mine enemis: arise vp for me in the iudgement that thou hast commanded.

7 And so shall the congregatiōn of the people come about thee: for their sakes therefore liffe vp thy selfe againe.

8 The Lord shal iudge the people, give sentence with me, O Lord: according to my righteousness and according to the innocencie that is in me.

14 He hath prepared for him the instruments of death: hee ordaineth his arrowes against the persecutors.

15 Behold, he trauelleth with mischiefe: he hath conceiued sorow, & brought forth vngodlinesse.

16 He hath grauen and digged vp a pit: and is fallen himselfe into the destruction that he made for others.

17 For his trauell shall come vpon his owne head: and his wickednes shall fall vpon his owne pate.

18 I will giue thankes vnto the Lord, according to his righteousnes: and wil praise the name of the Lord the most high.

Domine Dominus noster, Psal. viii.

O Lord our gouernour, how excellent is thy name in all the world: thou that hast set thy glorie aboue the heauens.

2 Out of the mouth of verie babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength, because of thy enemies: that thou mightest still the enemie and auenger.

3 For I will consider the heauens, euен the workes of thy fingers: the moone and the starres which thou hast ordained.

4 What is man that thou art mindfull of him: and the son of man that thou visitest him?

5 Thou madest him lower then the Angels: to crowne him with glorie and worship.

sea: and whatsoeuer walketh through the paths
of the seas.

9 O Lord our Gouernour: how excellent is thy name in all the world!

Confitebor tibi. Psal. ix.

Morning
rayer.

I will give thanks vnto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: I will speake of all thy marueilous works.

2 I will bee glad and rejoice in thee: yea, my songs wil I make of thy name, O thou most high.

3 While mine enemies are driven back: they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause: thou art set in the thone that iudgeth right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen and destroyed the ungodlie: thou hast put out their name for e uer and etier.

6 O thou enemie, destructions are come to a perpetuall end: even as the cities which thou hast destroyed, their memorial is perished with them.

7 But the Lord shall indure for ever: he hath also prepared his seat for judgement.

8 For he shal iudge the world in righteousness:
and minister true iudgement vnto the people.

9 The Lord also will be a defence for the op pressed: such a refuge in due time of trouble.

10 And

Morneth. The ii. day.

10 And they that knowe thy name will put their trust in thee : for thou Lord hast never faleled them that seeke thee.

11 O praise the Lord which dwelleth in Sion:
shew the people of his doings.

12 For when he maketh inquisition for bloud,
he remembreth them: and forgetteh not the complaint of the poore.

13 Hauie mercy vpon me, O Lord, consider the trouble whiche I suffer of them whiche hate me:
thou that listest me vp from the gates of death.

14 That I maie shewe all thy praises within the ports of the daughter of Sion: I will rejoice in thy salvation.

15 The heathen are sunke downe in the pit
that they made : in the same net whiche they hidde privilitie is their owne foot taken.

16 The Lord is knownen to execute iudgement:
the vngodlie is trapped in the worke of his owne hands.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell : and all the people that forget God.

18 For the poore shall not alway be forgotten:
the patient abiding of the meeke shall not perish
for euer.

19 Up Lord, and let not man haue the vpper hand : let the heathen be iudged in thy sight.

20 Put them in feare, O Lord : that the heathen maye know themselves to be but men.

Vt quid Domine, Psal. x.

Why standest thou so far off, O Lord: and hid-dest thy face in the needful time of trouble?

2 The vngodlie for his own lust doth persecute the poore: let them be taken in the crafty wiliness that they haue imagined.

3 For

3 For the vngodlie hath made boasse of his owne hearts desire: and speaketh god of the covetous, whom God abhorreth.

4 The vngodly is so proud, that he careth not for God: neither is God in all his thoughts.

5 His waies are alwaies grieuous, thy iudgements are far aboue out of his sight: and therfore despiseth he all his enemies.

6 For he hath said in his heart, Tush, I shall never be cast downe: there shall no harme happen unto me.

7 His mouth is full of cursing, deceit & fraud: vnder his tongue is vngodlines and vanitie.

8 He sitteth lurking in the theeuish corners of the streets: and priuily in his lurking dens doth he murther the innocent, his eies are set against the poore.

9 For he lieth waiting secrettlie, even as a Lyon lurketh in his denne: that he maie rauish the poore.

10 He doth rauish the poore: when he getteth him into his net.

11 He falleth downe and humbleth himselfe: that the congregatiōn of the poore may fall into the hands of his captaines.

12 He hath said in his heart, Tush, God hath forgotten: he hideth awaie his face, and he will never see it.

13 Arise, O Lord God, and lift vp thine hand: forget not the poore.

14 Wherefore should the wicked blaspheme God: while he doth saie in his heart, Tush, thou God carest not for it.

15 Surely thou hast seene it: for thou beholdest vngodliness and wrong.

16 That

Moneth. The ii. day.

16 That thou maiest take the matter into thy hand: the poore committeth himselfe unto thee, for thou art the helper of the friendlesse.

17 Break thou the power of the vngodlie and malitious: take awaies his vngodlinesse, and thou shalt find none.

18 The Lord is King for ever and ever: and the heathen are perished out of the land.

19 Lord, thou hast heard the desire of the poore: thou preparest their heart, and thine eare hearkeneth thereto.

20 To help the fatherlesse and poore unto their right: that the man of the earth be no more exalted against them.

In Domino confido. Psal. xi.

I ^Put the Lord put I my trust: how sate ye then to my soule, that she should sise as a bird to the hill:

2 For the vngodlie bend their boome and make readye their arrowes within the quiner: that they may priuily shot at them whiche are trone of heart.

3 For the foundations will bee cast downe: and what hath the righteous done?

4 The Lord is in his holy Temple: the Lords seate is in heaven.

5 His eies consider the poore: and his eie lids trieth the children of men.

6 The Lord alloweth the righteous: but the vngodlie and him that delighteth in wickednesse both his soule abhor.

7 Upon the vngodlie hee shall raine snares, fire and brimstone, storne and tempest: this shall be their portion to drinke.

is vnder their lippes.

6 Their mouth is ful of cursing and bitternes:
their feet are swist to shed bloud.

7 Destruction and unhappinesse is in their waies: and the way of peace haue they not know-en, there is no feare of God before their eies.

3 The sorowes of death compassed mee : and the ouerflowings of vngedlinesse made mee afraid.

4 The paines of hell came about mee : the snares of death ouertoke me.

5 In my trouble I will call upon the Lord:
and complaine vnto my God.

6 So shall he heare my voice out of his holie
Temple : and my complaint shall come before him, it shall enter cuen into his eates.

7 The earth trembled and quaked : the verie foundations also of the hils shooke , and were remoued because he was wroth.

8 There went a smoke out of his presence: and a consuming fire out of his mouth, so that coales were kindled at it.

9 He bowed the heauens also & came downe:
and it was darke vnder his feete.

10 He rode vpon the Cherubins, and did sitte:

15 The springs of waters were seen, and the foundations of the round world were discouered at thy chiding, O Lord: at the blasting of the breath of thy displeasure.

16 He shall send down from the high to fetch mee: and shall take me out of manie waters.

17 He shall deliver me from my strongest enimie, and from them which hate me: so, they are too mightie for me.

18 They pretended me in the day of my trouble: but the Lord was my upholder.

19 He brought me forth also into a place of libertie: he brought me forþ, euен because he had a fauour unto me.

20 The Lord shall reward me after my righteous dealing: according to the cleannessse of my hands shall he recompence me.

21 Because I haue kept the wates of y^e Lord: and haue not forsaken my God as the wicked doþ.

22 For I haue an eie unto all his lawes: and will not cast out his commandements from me.

23 I was also uncorruyt before him: and eschewed mine owne wickednesse.

24 Therefore shall the Lord reward mee after my righteous dealing: and according unto the cleannessse of my hands in his eie sight.

Moneth. The iii. day.

25 With the holy thou shalt be holie: & with

28 Thou shalt also light my candle: the Lord
my God shall make my darknes to be light.

29 For in thee shall I discomfit an host of Cæli enarrant. Psal. xix.

HEAVENS declare the glorie of Morning God : and the firmament sheweth prayer, his handy work.

2 One dayt telleth another: and one night certifieth another.

3 There is neither speche nor language: but their voices are heard among them.

4 Their sound is gone out into all lands: and their words into the end of the world.

5 In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun: which commeth forth as a bridegrome out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a giant to runne his course.

6 It goeth forth from the uttermost part of the heauen, and runneth about vnto the end of it againe: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 The lawe of the lord is an undefiled lawe, converting the soule: the testimonie of the lord is sure, and giueth wisdom vnto the simple.

8 The statutes of the lord are right, and rejoice the heart: the commandement of the lord is pure, and giueth light vnto the eyes.

9 The feare of the lord is cleane, and indureth for ever: the iudgements of the lord are true and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they then golde, yea than much fine gold: sweeter also then honie and the honie combe.

11 Moreover, by them is thy servant taught: and in keeping them there is great reward.

5 His honor is great in thy salvation : glorie and great worship shalt thou late vpon him.

6 For thou shalt give him everlasting felicitie : and make him glad with the joy of thy countenance.

7 And why : because the king putteth his trust in the Lord : and in the mercie of the most high he shall not miscarrie.

8 All thine enemies shall feele thy hand : thy right hand shal finde out them that hate thee.

9 Thou shalt make them like a fierie ouen in time of thy wrath : the lord shall destroie them in his displeasure , and the fire shall consume them.

10 Their fruit shalt thou root out of the earth ; and their seed storn among the children of men.

11 For they intended mischief against thee : and imagined such a deuice as they are not able to performe.

12 Therefore shalt thou put them to flight : and the strings of thy bowe shalt thou make reade against the face of them.

gathered them together: yea, the verie abiectes came tegether against me vnawarcs, making mowes at me, and ceased not.

16 With the flatterers were busie mockers:
which gnashed vpon me with their teeth.

17 Lorde, how long wilt thou looke vpon this:
O deliuer my soule from the calamities, which they bring on me, and my darling from the lions.

18 So will I give thee thankes in the great

our fathers haue tolde vs : what thou haest done in their time of olde.

2 How thou haest driven out the heathen with thy hand, and planted them in: how thou haest destroyed the nations, and cast them out.

3 For they got not the land in possession, thorough their owne sword: neither was it their own arme that helped them.

4 But thy right hand and thine arme , and the light of thy countenance : because thou haddeſt a ſauour unto them.

5 Thou art my King, O God : ſend help unto Jacob.

6 Through thee will we overſhew our ene-

that rise up againſt vs.

7 For I will not truſt in my boſte : it is not

9 Wee make our boaſt of God , all the daie

10 But now thou art far off and puttest vs to conuincion: and goest not forth with our armes.

11 Thou makeſt vs to turne our backs vpon our enemies: ſo that they which hate vs, ſpoile our 16 My confusion is dailie before mee: and the shame of my face hath couerred me.

17 For the voice of the slanderer and blasphemier: for the enemy and auenger.

18 And though all this be come vpon vs, yet do we not forget thee: nor behauie our selues frowardlie in thy cōuenant.

19 Our heart is not turned back: neither our steps gone out of thy wate.

20 No, not when thou hast smitten vs into the place of Dragons: and couerred vs with the shadow of death.

21 If we haue forgotten the name of our God, and holden vp our hands to anie strange GOD: shall not God search it out? for hee knoweth the vertie secrets of the heart.

22 For thy sake also are we killē, all the daie long: & are counted as sheep appointed to be slain.

Magnus Dominus. Psal. xlviij.

Great is the Lord and highly to be praised: in the citie of our God, even vpon his holte hill.

2 The hill of Sion is a faire place, and the tote of the whole earth: vpon the North side lieth the citie of the great King, God is well knownen in her Palaces as a sure refuge.

3 For loe, the Kings of the earth: are gathred and gone by together.

4 They maruelled to see such things: they were astonied and suddenly cast downe.

5 Feare came there vpon them and sorrow: as vpon a woman in her trauaile.

6 Thou shalt breake the shippes of the sea:
through the east winde.

7 Like as we haue heard, so haue we seen in the citie of the Lord of hostes, in the citie of our God: God vpholdeth the same for euer.

8 Wee waite for thy loving kindnesse, O
God: in the middel of thy temple.

9 O God according vnto thy name, so is thy praise vnto the worlds end: thy right hand is full of righteousness.

10 Let the mount Sion reioyce, and the daughters of Iuda be glad: because of thy iudgements.

11 Walk about Sion, and goe round about

Jubilate Deo. Psal. Lxvi.

O Be toyfull in God, all ye landes: sing praises unto the honor of his name, make his praise to be glorious.

2 Say vnto God, O how wonderfull art thou in thy works: through the greatnesse of thy power, shall thine enemies be found liers vnto thee.

3 For all the world shall worship thee: sing of thee and praise thy name.

4 O come hither and behold the works of God:
how wondersfull he is in his doing, towards the children of men.

5 He turned the sea into drye land: so that they went through the water on fote, there did we re-ioice therof.

6 He ruleth with his power for ever, his eyes
behold the people: and such as will not belieue, shall not be able to exalt themselves.

7 O praise our God, ye people: and make the voice of his praise to be heard.

8 Which holdeþ our soule in life: and suffereth not our feete to slip.

mised with my lips, and spake with my mouth,
when I was in trouble.

13 I will offer vnto thee fat burnt sacrifices, with the incense of Rams: I will offer bullocks and goates.

14 O come hither and hearken, all ye that feare God: and I will tell you what he hath done
for my soule.

15 I called vnto him with my moan: and gave hym praises with my tongue.

Morning
prayer.

Let God arise, and let his enemies bee scattered: let them also that hate him fly before him.

2 Like as the smoak vanishest, so shalt thou drine them awaie: and like as war melteth at the fire, so let the vngodly perish at the presence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glad and reioice before God: let them also be merrie and ioyfull.

4 O sing vnto God, and sing praises vnto his name: magnifie him that rideth vpon the heauens as it were vpon a horse, praise him in his name, yea and reioice before him.

5 He is a father of the fatherlesse, and defendeth the cause of the widowes: euен God in his holy habitation.

6 He is the God that maketh men to be of one mind in an house, and bringeth the prisoners out of captivity: but letteth the runnagates continue in scarcenesse.

7 O God, when thou wentest forth before the people: when thou wentest through the wildernesse.

8 The earth shooke, and the heauens dropped at the presence of God: euен as Sinai also was moued at the presence of God, which is the God of Israel.

23 That thy fote may be dipped in the bloud of thine enemies: and that the tongue of thy dogs
may be red through the same.

24 It is well seene, O God, how thou goest:
how thou my God and King goest in the sanctua-

5 I payed them the things that I never tooke: God, thou knowst my simplenesse, and my faults are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that trust in thee, O Lord God of hostes, be ashamed for my cause: let not those that seek thee be confounded through me, O Lord God of Istrael.

3 And why? I was grieved at the wicked: I doe also see the vngodly in such prosperity.

4 For they are in no perill of death: but are lustie and strong.

5 They come in no misfortune like other folks:
neither are they plagued like other men.

6 And this is the cause that they are so holden with pride: and ouerwhelmed with cruelty.

7 Their eyes swell with fatnesse: and they doe
even what they list.

8 They corrupt other, & speake of wicked blasphemey: their talking is against the most high.

9 For they stretch forth their mouth vnto the heauen: & their tongue goeth thorough the wold.

10 Therfore fall the people vnto them: and thereout suck they no small aduantage.

11 Cushi say they, How shoulde God perceiue
it: Is there knowledge in the most high?

12 Lo, these are the vr godly, these prosper in the wold, and these haue riches in possession: and I said, then haue I cleansed my heart in vaine, and washed mine hands in innocencie.

13 All the day long haue I beene punished: and chastened every morning.

14 Yea, and I had almost saide even as they:
but loe, then shoulde I haue condemned the gene-

is none vpon earth that I desire in comparison of thee.

25 My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

26 For loe, they that forsake thee shall perish:
thou hast destroyed all them that commit fornication against thee.

7 To the intent that when they came vp: they might shew their chilzen the same.

8 That they might put their trust in God: and not to forget the works of God, but to keepe his commandements.

9 And not to be as their forefathers, a faithlesse and stubborne generation: a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit cleaueth not stedfastly vnto God.

10 Like as the children of Ephraim: which being harnessed and carrying bowes, turned themselues backe in the day of battell.

11 They kept not the covenant of God: and would not walke in his law.

12 But forgave what hee had done: and the wondersfull works that he had shewed them.

13 Maruellous things did hee in the sight of our forefathers, in the land of Egypt: euен in the field of Zoan.

14 He diuided the sea, and let them go through:
he made the waters to stand on a heap.

15 In the daie time also hee led them with a cloude: and all the night throught with a light of fire.

16 Hee claued the hard rocks in the wildernes:
and gaue them drinke therof, as it had bene out of the great depth.

17 He brought waters out of the stony rock:
so that it gushed out like the riuers.

Moneth. The xv. day.

18 Yet for all this they sinned more against him: & prouoked the most high in the wildernes.

19 They tempted God in their hearts: and required meat for their lust.

20 They spake against God also, saying: Shal God prepare a table in the wildernes?

21 He smote the stony rock indeed, that the water gushed out, and the streames flowed withall: but can he give bread also, or prouide flesh for his people?

22 When the Lord heard this, he was wroth: so the fire was kindled in Jacob, and there came vp heavy displeasure against Israel.

23 Because they beleueed not in God: and put not their trust in his helpe.

24 So he commanded the clouds aboue: and opened the dores of heauen.

25 He rained downe Manna also vpon them for to eate: and gaue them food from heauen.

26 So man did eate Angels foode: for he sent them meate enough.

27 He caused the East winde to blowe vnder heauen: and through his power he brought in the Southwest wind.

28 He rained flesh vpon them as thick as dust: and feathered fowles like as the sand of the sea.

29 Hee let it fall among their tents: even round about their habitation.

30 So they did eate and were well filled, for he gaue them their owne desire: they were not disappointed of their lust.

31 But while the meate was yet in their monthes, the heavy wrath of God came vpon them, and slew the wealthiest of them: yea and smote

Moneth. The xv. day.

smote down the chosen men that were in Israel.

32 But for all this they sinned yet more: and believed not his wondrous works.

33 Therefore their vapes did hee consume in vanity: and their yeares in trouble.

34 When he saw them, they sought him: and turned them early and enquired after God.

35 And they remembred that God was their strength: and that the high God was their redemer.

36 Nevertheless, they did but flatter him with their mouths, dissemble with him in their tongue.

37 For their heart was not whole with him:
neither continued they stedfast in his covenant.

38 But he was so mercifull: that hee forgave their misdeeds and destroyed them not.

39 Yea, many a time turned hee his wrath away: and would not suffer his whole displeasure to arise.

40 For he considered that they were but flesh:
and that they were euē a winde that passeth away, and commeth not againe.

41 Many a time did they prouoke him in the wildernes: and grieved him in the desert.

42 They turned back and tempted God: and mooved the holy one in Israell.

43 They thought not of his hand: and of the day when he deliuered them from the hand of the enemie.

44 How hee had wrought his miracles in Egypt: and his wonders in the field of Zo-an.

45 He turned their waters into blood: so that they might not drinke of the rivers.

Moneth. The xv. day.

46. Hee sent lice among them and devoured them vp: and frogs to destroy them.

47. Hee gave their fruits vnto the caterpiller:
and their labour to the grasshopper.

48. He destroyed their vines with halestones:
and their mulberry trees with the frost.

49. He smote their cattell also with halestones:
and their flocks with thunderbolts.

50. Hee cast upon them the furyousesse of his wrath, anger, displeasure and trouble: and sent evill angels among them.

51. Hee made a way to his indignation, and spared not their soule from death: but gaue their life ouer to the pestilence.

52. And smote all the first borne in Egypt: the most principall and mightiest in the dwellings of Ham.

53. But as for his owne people, hee led them forth like sheep: and carried them in the wildernes like a flock.

54. Hee brought them out safely, that they should not feare: and overwhelmed their enemies with the sea.

55. And brought them within the borders of his sanctuary: even to the mountaine which hee purchased with his right hand.

56. Hee cast out the heathen also before them:
and caused thir land to bee divided among them
for an heritance, and made the tribes of Israel to dwelle in their tents.

57. So they tempted and displeased the most high God: and kept not his testimonies.

58. But turned their backs, and felldaway like their forefathers: starting aside like a broken bowe.

59. For

Moneth. The xv. day.

59 For they grieved him with their hil altars:
and provoked him to displeasure with their images.

60 When God heard this, he was wroth: and ooke sore displeasure at Israell.

61 So that he forsooke the tabernacle in Silo:
even the tent that he had pitched among them.

62 Hee delivered their power into captiuitie:
and their beauty into the enemies hand.

63 Hee gaue his people ouer also unto the sword: and was wroth with his inheritance.

64 The fire consumed their young men: and their maidens were not given to mariage,

65 Their priests were slain with the sword: and there were no widdowes to make lamentation.

66 So the Lord awaked as one out of sleepe:
and like a giant refreshed with wine.

67 He smote his enemies in the hinder parts:
and put them to a perpetuall shame.

68 He refused the tabernacle of Joseph: and chose not the tribe of Ephraim.

69 But chose the tribe of Juda: even the hill
of Sion which he loued.

70 And there bee builded his temple on high: & laied the foundation of it like the ground, which he hath made continuallie.

71 He chose David also his servant: and tooke him away from the sheepfolds.

72 As he was following the ewes great with young ones: bee took him, that he might sacerde Jacob his people and Israell his inheritance.

73 So bee sed them with a faithfull and true heart: and ruled them prudentlie with all his power.

Dens venerunt. Psal. Lxxix.

O God, the heathen are come into thine heritance : thy holie Temple have they defiled , and made Jerusalem an heap of stones.

2 The dead bodies of thy servants haue they giuen to be meat vnto the fowles of the aire : and the flesh of thy saints vnto the beasts of the land .
3 Their bloud haie they shed like water on every side of Jerusalem ; and there was no man to bury them.

4 We are become an open shame vnto our ennies : a very scorn and derision vnto them that are round about vs .

5 Lord , how long wille thou be angry : shall thy iealousie burne like fire for euer ?

6 Powre out thine indignation vpon the hea-

3 Turne vs againe, O God: shewe the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

right hand hath planted : and the branch that thou madest so strong for thy selfe.

so strong for thine owne selfe.

18 And so will not wee goe back from thee :
O let vs liue, and we shall call vpon thy name.

19 Turn vs again, thou Lord God of hosts :
shew the light of thy countenance , and we shall be whole.

4 For, a thousand yeares in thy sight are but as yesterday: seeing that is past as a watch in the night.

5 As soone as thou scatterest them, they are even as asleepe: and fade away suddenlie like the grasse.

6 In the morning it is green and groweth vp: but in the evening it is cut downe, dried vp, and withered.

7 For, wee consume awaie in thy displeasure: and are afraid of thy wrathfull indignation.

8 Thou hast set our misdaedes before thee: and our secret sins in the sight of thy countenance.

9 For, when thou art angrie, all our dayes are gone: wee bring our yeares to an end, as it were a tale that is tolde.

10 The daies of our age are threescore yeares and tenne, and though men be so strong that they come to fourscore yeares: yet is their strength then but labour and sorowe, so soone passeth it away and we are gone.

11 But who regardeth the power of thy wrath: for euен thereafter as a man feareth, so is thy displeasure.

12 O teach vs to number our daies: that we may apply our hearts vnto wisdome.

13 Turne thee againe, O Lord, at the last: and be gracious vnto thy servants.

14 O satisfie vs with thy mercie, and shal

soone: so shall we retoice and be glad all the daies of our life.

15 Comfort vs againe, now after the time that thou hast plagued vs: and for the yeares wherein we haue suffred aduersitie.

16 Shew thy seruants thy worke: and their childzen thy glorie.

17 And the glorious maiestie of the Lord our God be vpon vs: prosper thou the worke of our hands vpon vs, O prosper thou our handy worke.

Qui habitat. Psal. xcii.

WHoso dwelleth vnder the defence of the most high: shall abide vnder the shadow of the Almightie.

2 I will late vnto the Lord, Thou art my hope
& my strong hold: my God in him will I trust.

3 For hee shall deliuere thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noisome pestilence.

4 Hee shall defend thes vnder his wings, and thou shalt be safe vnder his feathers: his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not be afraide for anie terror
by night: nor for the arrowe that flieth by day.

6 For the pestilence that walketh in the dark-nesse: nor for the sicknesse that destroith in the noone daie.

7 A thousand shall fall besids thee, and tenne thousand at thy right hand: but they shall not come nigh thee.

8 Yea, with thine eyes shalt thou behold: and see the reward of the vngodlie.

9 For thou Lord art my hope: thou hast set thine house of defence verie high.

10 There shall no euill happen vnto thee: nev-

12 They shall bear thee in their hands : that thou hurt not thy soote against a stone.

13 Thou shalt go vpon the Lydn and adder: the yong Lyon and the Dragon shalt thou tread under thy feete.

14 Because he hath set his loue vpon mee, therefore shall I deliuer him : I shall set him vp,
because he hath known my name.

15 He shal call vpon me, and I will bear him:
yea I am with him in trouble, I will deliuer him
and bring him to honour.

16 With long life wil I satissie him : and shew

4 How long shall all wicked doers speake so disdainfully: and make such proud boasting?

5 They smite downe thy people, O Lord: and trouble thine heritage.

6 They taunt the widow and the stranger: and put the fatherlesse to death.

7 And yet they say, Tush, the Lord shall not see: neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.

8 Take heed, yee unwise among the people: O ye fooles when will ye understand?

9 He that planted the eare shall he not heare: or he that made the eye shall he not see?

prayer.

O Give thanks vnto the Lord , for hee is gratioues: and his mercie endureth for ever.

2 Who can expresse the noble acts of the Lord : or shew forth all his praise ?

3 Blessed are they that alway keepe iudgement:
and do righteousnesse.

4 Remembre mee O Lord according to the fauour that thou beatest vnto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation.

5 That I may see the felicitie of thy chosen:
and reioice in the gladnes of thy people, and give thanks with thine inheritance.

6 Wee haue sinned with our Fathers : wee haue done amisse and dealt wickedly.

7 Our Fathers regarded not thy wonders in Egypt , neither kept they thy great goodnesse in remembrance : but were disobedient at the sea , euen at the red sea.

8 Neuerthelesse , he helped them for his name sake : þ he might make his power to be knownen.

9 Hee rebuked the red sea also , and it was dried vp : so he led them through the deep , as through a wildernes.

10 And he saved them from their aduersaries hand : and deliuered them from the hand of the ennemie.

11 As for those that troubled them , the waters ouerwhelmed them : there was not one of them left.

12 Then believed they his words: and sang praise vnto him.

13 But

Moneth. The xxi. day.

13 But within a while they forgat his works :
and would not abide his counsell.

14 But lust came vpon them in the wildernes :
and they tempted God in the desert.

15 And hee gaue them their desire : and sent leanness into their soule.

16 They angred Moses also in the tents : and Aaron the saint of the Lord.

17 So the earth opened and swallowed vp Da-than : and couered the congregation of Abiram.

18 And the fire was kindled in their company :
the flame burnt vp the brigodly.

19 They made a calfe in Horeb : and worshipt
the molten image.

20 Thus they turned their glory : into the similitude of a calfe that eateth hay.

21 And they forgat God their Saviour : which had done so great things in Egypt.

22 Wonderous workes in the land of Ham :
and fearefull things by the red sea.

23 So he said he would haue destroyed them, had not Moses his servant stood before him in the gap : to turne away his wrathfull indignation,
least he shoulde destroy them.

24 Yea, they thought scorne of that pleasant land : and gaue no credence vnto his word.

25 But murmured in their tents : and hearkened not vnto the voyce of the Lord.

26 Then lift he vp his hand against them : to overthrow them in the wildernes.

27 To cast out their seede among the nations :
and to scatter them in the lands.

28 They ioyned themselves vnto Baal Peor :
and ate the offerings of the dead.

29 Thus

Moneth. The xxi. day.

29 Thus they prouoked him to anger with their owne inuentions: & the plague was great among them.

30 Then stood up Phinees and prayed: and so the plague ceased.

31 And that was counted to him for righteouenes: among all posterities for evermore.

32 They angred him also at the waters of strife: so that he punished Moles for their sakes.

33 Because they prouoked his spirit: so that he spake vnadvisedly with his lips.

34 Neither destroyed they the heathen: as the Lord commanded them.

35 But were mingled among the heathen: and learned their works.

36 Insomuch that they worshipped their idols, which turned to their owne decay: yea, they offered their sonnes and daughters unto devils.

37 And shedinnoent bloud, evn the bloud of their sonnes and of their daughters: whom they offered vnto the Idols of Canaan, and the land was defiled with bloud.

38 Thus were they stained with their owne workes: and went a whoozing with their owne inuentions.

39 Therefore was the wrath of the Lord kindled against his people: insomuch that he abhorred his owne inheritance.

40 And he gave them ouer into the hand of the heathen: and they that hated them were Lords over them.

41 Their enemies oppressed them: & had them in subjection.

42 Many a time did he deliver them, but they rebelled rebelled against him with their owne intentions :

and were brought downe in their wickednesse.

43 Neuerthelesse, when he saw their aduersity :
he heard their complaint.

44 He thought vpon his covenant, and pittied them, according to the multitude of his mercies :
yea he made all those that had led them away captive to pittie them.

45 Deliver vs, O Lord our God, and gather vs from among the heathen : that wee may give thanks vnto thy holy name , and make our boast of thy praise.

46 Blessed bee the Lord God of Israell, from everlasting, and world without end : and let all the people say, Amen.

2 Let them give thankes whom the Lord hath redemeed : and delivered from the hand

3 And gathered them out of the lands: from the East and from the West , from the North & from the South.

4 They went astray in the wildernesse, out of the way : and found no citie to dwelle in.

5 Hungry and thirssty : their soule fainted in

6 So they cried vnto the Lord in their trouble:
and he deliuered them out of their distresse.

7 Hee led them forth by the right way : that they might goe to the city where they dwelt.

11 Because they rebelled against the words of the Lord : and lightly regarded the counsell of the 12 He also brought down their heart through beauinesse : they fell down, and there was none to help them vp.

13 So when they cried vnto the Lord in their

26 They are carried vpp to the heauen, and down againe to the depe: their soule melteth away because of their trouble.

27 They reele to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man: and are at their wits end.

28 So when they cried vnto the Lord in their trouble: he delivereſ them out of their distresse.

Moneth. The xxviii. day.

I 5 But as for Pharao and his host, he couersheweth them in the red sea: for his mercy endureth
for euer.

I 6 Which ledde his people through the wildernes: for his mercy endureth for euer.

I 7 Which smote great Kings: for his mercy
endureth for euer.

I 8 Yea, and slue mighty Kings: for his mercy
endureth for euer.

I 9 Sehon King of the Amorites: for his mercy endureth for euer.

I 10 And Og the King of Basan: for his mercy endureth for euer.

I 11 And gaue away their land for an heritage:
for his mercy endureth for euer.

I 12 Even for an heritage vnto Israell his servant: for his mercy endureth for euer.

I 13 Which remembred vs when we were in trouble: for his mercy endureth for euer.

I 14 And hath delivered vs from our enemies:
for his mercy endureth for euer.

I 15 Which giueth food to all flesh: for his mercie
endureth for euer.

I 16 O give thanks vnto the God of heauen: for his mercy endureth for euer.

I 17 O give thanks vnto the Lord of Lords: for
his mercy endureth for euer.

Super flumina. Psal. Cxxxvii.

I 18 By the waters of Babylon, we late downe and wept: when we remembred thine (O Sion.)

I 19 As for our harps, we hanged them vp: vpon
the trees that are therein.

I 20 For they that led vs away captaine, required
of vs then a song and melody in our heauinesse:

Sing

Moneth. The xxviii. day.

Sing vs one of the songs of Zion.

4 How shall wee sing the Lords song: in a strange land?

5 If I forget thee, O Jerusaleim: let my right hand forget her cunning.

6 If I doe not remember thee, let my tongue
cleave to the roose of my mouth: yea, if I preferre not Jerusalem in my mirth.

7 Remember the children of Edom, O Lord,
in the day of Jerusalem: how they said, Downe
with it, downe with it cuen to the ground.

8 O daughter of Babylon, wasted with misery: yea happy shall he be that rewardeith thee, as thou hast served vs.

9 Blessed shall he be that taketh thy children:
and thoweweth them against the stones.

Confitebor tibi Domine. Psal. Cxxxviii.

I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: even before the gods will I sing praises unto thee.

2 I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name because of thy louing kindnesse and truth: for thou hast magnified thy name above thy word above all things.

3 When I called upon thee, thou heardest me:
and indowest my soule with much strength.

4 All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O
Lord: for they haue heard the words of thy mouth.

5 Yea, they shall sing in the wates of the Lord;
that great is the glory of the Lord.

6 For though the Lord be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: as for the prouid he beholdeth them afarre off.

7 Though I walke in the midst of trouble: yet shall

Moneth. The xxix. day.

Halt thou refresh me: thou shalt stretch forth thine hand vpon the furiousnesse of mine enimies, and thy right hand shall save me.

8 The Lord shal make good his louing kindnes towards me: yea thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever, despise not then the works of thine owne hands.

Domine probasti. Psal. Cxxxix.

O Lord, thou hast searched me out & knowne me: thou knowest my down sitting and mine vpstanding, thou understandest my thoughts long before. Morning prayer.

2 Thou art about my path, and about my bed: and spiest out all my wayes.

3 For loe there is not a word in my tongue: but thou, O Lord, knowest it altogether.

4 Thou hast fashioned me behinde and before: and laid thine hand vpon me.

5 Such knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me: I cannot attaine vnto it.

6 Whither shall I then flee from thy spirit: or whither shall I go from thy presence?

7 If I climbe vp into heauen, thou art there: if I go down to hell, thou art there also.

8 If I take the wings of the morning: and remaine in the uttermost parts of the sea.

9 Euen there also shall thine hand lead me: & thy right hand shall holde me.

10 If I say, Peraduenture the darknes shall cover me: then shal my night be turned to day.

11 Yea, the darkenesse is no darkenesse with thee, but the night is as clear as the day: the darkenesse, and the light to thee are both alike.

Moneth. The xxix. day.

12 For my reines are thine: thou hast conected me in my mothers wombe.

13 I wil give thankes vnto thee, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: maruellous are thy works, and that my soule knoweth right well.

14 My bones are not hid from thee: though I be made secretly and fashioned bent ath in the earth.

15 Thine eyes did see my substance yet being vnperfect: and in thy booke were all my members written.

16 Which day by day were fashioneid: when as yet there was none of them.

17 How deare ate thy counsels vnto mee, O God: O how great is the summe of them!

18 If I tell them, they are moe in number than the sand: when I wake vppe, I am present with thee.

19 Wilt thou not slea the wicked, O God: depart from me ye bloudthirstie men.

20 For they speake vrighteously against thee: and thine enemies take thy name in vaine.

21 Doe I not hate them, O Lord, that hate thee: and am not I grieved, with those that rise vp against thee?

22 Yea, I hate them right soze: euen as though they were mine enemies.

23 Trie me, O God, and seeke the ground of my heart: proue mee and examine my thoughts.

24 Look wel if there be any way of wickednes in me: and lead me in the way everlasting.

Eripe me Domine. Psal. Cxl.

D^elivier me, O Lord, from the euill man: and preserve me from the wicked men.

25 Which imagine mischiche in their hearts: and

and stir vp strife all the day long.

3 They haue sharpened their tonges like a serpent: Adders poison is vnder their lips.

4 Keep me O Lord from the hands of the ungodlie: preserue me from the wicked men which are purposed to ouerthrowe my goings.

5 The proude haue laide a snare for me, and spred a net abroad with cords: yea and set traps in my way.

6 I saide vnto the Lord, Thou art my God: heare the voice of my prayers, O Lord.

7 O Lord God, thou strength of my health: thou hast covered my head in the daie of battell.

8 Let not the vngodly haue his desire, O Lord: let not his mischievous imagination prosper, least they be too prond.

9 Let the mischiefe of their owne lips, fall vpon the head of them: that compasse me about.

10 Let hot burning coales fall vpon them: let them be cast into the fire, and into the pit, that they never rise vp againe.

11 A man full of words shall not prosper vpon the earth: evill shall hunt the wicked person to ouerthrow him.

12 Sure I am that the Lord will auenge the pore: and maintaine the cause of the helpless.

13 The righteous also shall give thanks vnto thy name: and the iust shall continue in thy sight.

Do nine clamaui. Psal. Cxli.

L Ord I call vpon thee, haste thee vnto me: and consider my voice when I cry vnto thee.

2 Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as the incense: and let the lifting vp of my hands be an evening sacrifice.

Moneth. The xxix. day.

3 Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth: and keep the doore of my lips.

4 O let not my heart be inclined to anie euill thing: let me not be occupied in vngodly works, with the men that wroke wickednes, least I cate
of such things as please them.

5 Let the righteous rather smite mee friendly:
and reproue me.

6 But let not their pretious balmes breake mine head: yea I will pray yet against their wickednesse.

7 Let their Judges bee ouerthowne in stony places: that they may heare my words, for they are sweet.

8 Out bones lie scattered before the pit: like as when one breaketh & he weth wood vpon the earth.

9 But mine eies look vnto thee, O Lord God:
in thee is my trust, O cast not out my soule.

10 Keepe mee from the snare whiche they haue laid for me: and from the traps of the wicked doers.

11 Let the vngodly fall into their owne nets
together: and let me euer escape them.

Voce mea ad Dom. Psal. Cxliij.

Evening
ayer.

I Cried vnto the Lord with my voyce: yea even vnto the Lord did I make my supplication.

2 I poured out my complaint before him:
and shewed him of my trouble.

3 When my spirit was in heauines, thou knew-est my path: in the way wherein I walked, haue
they priuily laid a snare for me.

4 I looked also vpon my right hand: and sawe
there

there was no man that would knowe me.

5 I had no place to lie vnto : and no man cared
for my soule.

6 I cried vnto thee, O Lord, and said: Thou art
my hope and my portion in the land of the living.

7 Consider my complaint : for I am brought very lowe.

8 O deliver me from my persecutors : for they are too strong for me.

9 Bring my soule out of prison, that I may give thanks vnto thy name : which thing if thou wilt grant mee, then shall the righteous resort vnto
my company.

Domine exaudi. Psal. Cxliii.

Hearc my prayer O Lord, and consider my desire : hearken vnto mee for thy truth and righteousnes sake.

2 And enter not into iudgement wth thy servant;
for in thy sight shall no man living be iustified.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soule, he hath smitten my life down to the ground : he hath aid me in the darknesse, as the men that haue bin ong dead.

4 Therfore is my spirit vexed within me : and my heart within me is desolate.

5 Yet doe I remeber the time past , I muse pon all thy works : yea, I exercise my selfe in the works of thy hands.

6 I stretch forth my hands vnto thee: my soule
aspeth vnto thee as a thirsty land.

7 Hearc me O Lord, and that soon, for my spirit wereth faint: hide not thy face from mee, least be like vnto them that go down into the pit.

in the morning, for in thee is my trust: shew thou me the way that I should walke in, for I list vp my soule vnto thee.

9 Deliver mee, O Lord, from mine enemies: for I lie vnto thee to heare me.

10 Teach me to do the thing that pleasest thee, for thou art my God: let thy louing spirite lead me forth into the land of righteousnes.

11 Quicken me, O Lord, for thy names sake: and for thy righteousnes sake bring my soule out of trouble.

12 And of thy goodneslea mine enemies: and destroy all them that were my soule, for I am thy servant.

Benedictus Deus. Psal. Cxliij.

Morning
prayer.

Blessed bee the Lord my strength: which teacheth my hands to war and my fingers to fight.

2 My hope and my foztresse: my castle and delitierer, my defender in whom I trust, which subducth my people that is vnder me.

3 Lord, what is man that thou hast such respect vnto him: or the sonne of man that thou so regardest him?

4 Man is like a thing of nought: his time passeth away like a shadow.

5 Bow the heauens, O Lord, and come downe and touch the mountaines and they shall smoake.

6 Cast forth thy lightning & teare them: shoo to be out thine arrowes and consume them.

7 Send downe thine hand from above: deliver another mee and take mee out of the great waters, from the hand of the strange children.

8 Who

9 I wil sing a new song unto thee, O God: and sing praises unto thee vpon a ten stringed lute.

10 Thou that gavest victory vnto Kings: and hast deliuered David thy seruant from the perill of the sword.

11 Haue me and deliuere me from the hand of strange children: whose mouth talketh of vanitie, and their right hand is a right hand of iniquitie.

12 That our sons may growe vp as the yong plants: and that our daughters may bee as the polished corners of the temple.

13 That our garners may be full and plentious with all manner of store: that our sheep may bring forth thousands, and ten thousands in our streets.

14 That our oren may be strong to labour, tht there be no decay: no leading into captivity, and no complaining in our streets.

15 Happy are the people that be in such a case: yea, blessed are the people whiche haue the Lord for their God.

Exaltabo te Deus, Psal. Cxlv.

1 Will magnifie thee, O God, my king: & I will praise thy name for ever and ever.

2 Every day will I give thanks vnto thee: and will praise thy name for ever and ever.

3 Great is the Lord and maruellous worthy to be praised: there is no end of his greatness.

4 One generation shall praise thy works vnto
another: and declare thy power.

5 As for me, I will be talking of thy worship:
thy glory, thy praise and wondrous works.

Moneth. The xxx. day.

6 So that men shall speake of the might of thy maruellous acts: & I wil also tell of thy greatness.

7 The memoriall of thine abundant kindness shall be shewed: and men shall sing of thy rightefulness.

8 The Lord is gratiouse and mercifull: long suffering and of great goodness.

9 The Lord is louing vnto every man: and his mercy is ouer all his works.

10 All thy works praise thee, O Lord: and thy saints give thanks vnto thee.

11 They shew the glory of thy Kingdome:
and talke of thy power.

12 That thy power, thy glorie, and mightines of thy kingdome: might be knowne vnto men.

13 Thy kingdom is an euerlasting kingdom:
and thy dominion indureth throught hout all ages.

14 The Lord vpholdeth all such as fall: and lifteth vp all those that be downe.

15 The eyes of all wait vpon thee , O Lord:
and thou giuest them their meate in due season.

16 Thou openest thy hand: and fillest all things living with plentiousnes.

17 The Lord is righteous in all his wayes: and holie in all his works.

18 The Lord is nigh vnto all them that call
vpon him: yea all such as cal vpon him faithfully.

19 He shall fulfill the desire of them that feare
him: he also will heare their cry: will help them.

20 The Lord preserueth all them that loue him:
but scattereth all the vngodly.

21 My mouth shal speake the praise of the Lord:
and let all flesh give thankes vnto thy holy name for ever and ever.

I praise the Lord: yea as long as I haue any being I will sing praises vnto my God.

2 Put not your trust in princes: nor in any childe of man, for there is no help in them.

3 For when the breath of man goeth forth, hee shall turns againe to his earth: and then all his thoughts perish.

4 Blessed is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help: and whose hope is in the Lord his God.

5 Which made heauen and earth, the sea & all that therin is: which keepeth his promise for euer.

6 Which helpeth them to rytght that suffer wrongs: which feedeth the hungry.

7 The Lord loseth men out of prison: the Lord
gineth sight to the blinde.

8 The Lord helpeth them that are fallen: the Lord careth for the righteous.

9 The Lord careth for the strangers, he defendeth the fatterlesse and widdowe: as for the waite of the vngodly, he turneth it upside downe.

10 The Lord thy God, O Sion, shall be king
for euermore; and throughout all generations.

The end of the Psalter,

Godlie praiers.

A necessarie and godly praier for the true understanding of Gods word.

Preserue me O almighty Lord, as thou alone art the autho^r of the holie Scriptures : so that no man although hee be never so wise, politike and learned, can understand them except he be taught by thy holy spirit, which alone is the scholemaster to lead the faithfull into all truth.

Touchsafe therefore I most humble beseech thee, to breath into my hart thy blessed spirit, which may renewe the senses of my minde : open my wits, reueale vnto me the true vnderstanding of thy holy mysteries, and plant in mee such a certaine and infallible knowledge of thy truth, that no subtill persuasion of mans wisedome may plucke me from thy truth; but that as I haue learned the true vnderstanding of thy blessed will, so I may remayne in the same continuallie, come life, come death, vnto the glorie of thy blessed name, Amen.
